1983 Roster Cross-Index

The Roster Cross-Index is a list of all merger activity* completed during calendar year 1983 and reported in Mergers & Acquisitions Volume 18 Number 2 (1st Q), Volume 18 Number 3 (2nd Q), Volume 18 Number 4 (3rd Q), and Volume 19 Number 1 (4th Q).

All companies, both acquiring and acquired, are listed alphabetically. Each company listing includes all completed transactions in which that company was involved during the year. Each entry indicates Volume, Number, and page of the issue in which the full listing appears.

Abbreviations used:

acq. — acquired
int. — interest
add. — additional
maj. — majority
rem. — remaining

*Meeting our criteria as outlined on page 21.
Vol. 19 No. 1 to be published May 1984.

1983 Article Index

Vol.18 No.1 Spring 1983

20 Profile: John Wallace of Petrolane
John Wallace once directed Petrolane's diversification program as dealmaker and is now returning to energy basics.

22 Roundtable: Rules of the Game
Rulemakers or rulebreakers? Twelve investment bankers tell where they draw the line when it comes to fees, bid auctions, and other controversial areas.

42 Postmerger Performance of Dun's Well-Managed Companies
Garnet D. Olive
Do well-managed companies do better as acquirers? Yes, says this new study of the acquisition performance of 50 firms selected over 10 years by Dun's Business Month for their superior management.

48 Merger Accounting and Tax Law: Trading Off the Options
Alan D. Gasiorek
The way an acquisition is treated for accounting and tax purposes can have a significant effect on future earnings and cash flows, but the interaction of these two factors is rarely analyzed.

54 The Prime Rate: Media Myth vs Reality
Fred F. Richards, Jr.
Banks should publish their lowest lending rate for businesses and drop the hokum about prime rate — which nowadays is neither prime nor a rate.

56 Investing in Merger Stocks
Joel M. Stern
After a merger, what makes one acquirer's stock go up and another's down? And how can investors predict such moves? According to the star panelist of "Wall Street Week," it's a matter of free cash flow.

Vol.18 No.2 Summer 1983

22 Roundtable: Negotiation
Four corporate development directors discuss how they negotiate acquisitions and divestitures — from the $1 million bottler to the $100 million leader.

34 Beyond Tire-Kicking: The Appraiser's New M&A Role
James S. Blaising and John R. Gasiorowski
Independent appraisers are now offering sophisticated valuation of both intangibles and tangibles before and after the acquisition. Eight leading firms are profiled.

42 Electing to Treat Stock Purchases as Asset Acquisitions
Robert Feinschreiber
Asset purchases are now made easy through a convenient new TEFRA election procedure.

49 The U.K. Acquisition Scene
Kenneth F. Dibben
Opportunities await American firms who can play m&a cricket according to the rules. John Hignett, director of the U.K. Take-Over Panel, offers some authoritative words.

57 Tender Offer Update: 1983
Douglas V. Austin
With bid volume, premium level, and bank financing down, last year was a cautious one for bidders.

62 Breakthrough: New M&A Research Findings
Who makes m&a decisions; why; for what; and with what? These studies reveal new answers.

Vol.18 No.3 Fall 1983

21 L.B.O.s: A New Capital Market (And How to Cope with It)
Carl Ferenbach
The leveraged buyout marketplace today represents opportunities for both buyers and backers.

26 Roundtable: Tender Offers
Seven investment bankers discuss rarely revealed benefits and risks of major strategies for gaining corporate control — from both buyer and seller viewpoints.

40 Do Mergers Make Money? A Research Summary
J. Fred Weston and Kwang S. Chung
Examined in tandem, ten theories of merger motives and 15 studies of merger return reveal that mergers are rational.

50 Buy or Be Bought: The Antitrust Defense
Arthur Fleischer
From his upcoming book on "shark repellents," this well-known attorney covers an antitrust angle.

53 Valuing the Closely Held Business
John P. Faris, Walter R. Holman, and Patrick A. Martinelli
Three primary measures of private company value — effective liquidation value, gross revenues capitalization value, and buyer's discretionary cash value — can be combined into one useful measure.

Vol. 18 No. 4 Winter 1984

26 Roundtable: Small-Company Acquisitions
Seven intermediaries who specialize in m&a activity for small and medium-sized firms discuss how deals are made in this segment of American business.

Dealing with Employee Benefit Plans
Robert A. Profusek and Jeffrey B. Leavitt
